ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

On October 31, 2007, a detention hearing was held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of defendant pending trial in this case:

(1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed an offense for which a term of imprisonment ranges between five years and forty years pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 841(b)(1)(B).

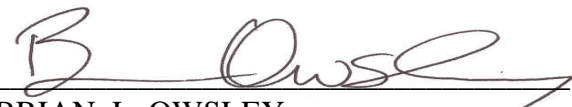

(2) Defendant has not rebutted the presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

The evidence against defendant meets the probable cause standard. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted. Defendant's criminal history reflects that he has been unable to comply with court-ordered conditions of parole and would be a poor candidate for bond. Additionally, because defendant asked Pretrial Services that no family members or friends be contacted on his behalf, defendant's personal information remains unverified.

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on a request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 31st day of October 2007.

BRIAN L. OWSLEY
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
